

AUTHORIZED EARLY WITHDRAWAL

If you wish to take a leave of absence, or withdraw from the university, you must first obtain approval from the Cranwell International Center before dropping your classes. Please submit this form as soon as you wish to withdraw from the university.

When you are ready, submit the following to Cranwell International Center.

- Completed Authorized Early Withdrawal Form
- Copy of flight itinerary
- Student Withdrawal/Resignation Form from the Office of the University Registrar

What else should I do?

- Meet with your professors and academic advisor to inform them of your plans to leave.
- If you live on-campus, contact Housing and Residence Life.
- If you live off-campus, inform your Landlord of your travel plans.

What happens after I submit this form?

- SEVIS record will be terminated for Authorized Early Withdrawal. This has no negative effect on your SEVIS record.
- Confirmation email will be sent to you with additional instructions.
- Student is no longer eligible for on-campus employment.
- You have 15 days to depart the United States as soon as your courses are dropped. There is no extension to this rule.

What do I complete when I would like to return to Virginia Tech?

- Notify Cranwell International Center at least 60 days before you intend to return.
- You may return to the United States no earlier than 30-days prior to the start of the term.
- Contact your academic department to inform them of your plans to return and register for the appropriate classes.
- Take care of any holds you may have on your account. Holds may prevent you from registering for classes.
